OBIETTIVI FORMATIVI::

Christian dimension to the idea of Leadership, in a secular and ecclesial context, in which the importance of leaders reaches spectacular or critical dimensions.

A point of view with God at the center is the basis on which we will build a rigorous quest for knowledge and scholarship. Since God is the source of knowledge, there are many ways in which knowledge can be acquired, such as - experimental research, authority, observation, personal experience, collective experience, logic, revelation, and intuition. Leadership study is based on a strong tradition of literature and leadership studies.

PREREQUISITI:

CONTENUTI DELL'INSEGNAMENTO:

The course content reflects classic and cutting-edge topics in the area of Leadership, and the approach to the topics in this discipline is based on recent publications in the literature. In addition, the main concepts relevant to the theoretical and practical preparation of future leaders in ministry are covered in the subject matter. Since among the skills required by employers from graduates are administrative and non-profit leadership skills, which at the same time presuppose the development of a character that is in harmony with the principles of Evangelicalism, the theoretical information and practical applications within the discipline have paid greater attention to these aspects. Therefore,
